A shareholder cannot give any other instructions than selecting one of the options specified at each item in the form. If a shareholder wishes to abstain from voting in relation to a matter, kindly refrain from selecting an option. A vote (i.e. the postal voting in its entirety) is invalid if the shareholder has provided the form with specific instructions or conditions or if pre-printed text is amended or supplemented.

One form per shareholder will be considered. If more than one form is submitted, the form with the latest date will be considered. The form latest received by the company will be considered if two forms are dated at the same date. An incomplete or wrongfully completed form may be discarded without being considered. A shareholder who has voted by post also has the possibility to participate in the meeting room, provided that notification to attend the meeting room has been made in accordance with the instructions in the notice convening the Extraordinary General Meeting. If a shareholder has voted by post, and thereafter participates at the Extraordinary General Meeting in person or by proxy, the postal vote is still valid unless the shareholder participates in a vote during the meeting or otherwise withdraws submitted postal vote. If the shareholder during the meeting chooses to participate in a vote, the vote cast will replace the previously submitted postal vote in the relevant decision point(s).

Please note that the postal vote does not constitute a notification to attend the meeting room in person or through a representative. Instructions for shareholders who wish to attend the meeting room in person or through a representative can be found in the notice convening the meeting.
